Border City Yellowtail Takes Rising
 After alternately blowing hot and cold since the kickoff day, the $25,000 San Diego Yellowtail Derby suddenly came into sharp focus last week end with materially improved catches at the Coronado Islands and the picture has grown steadily brighter since.

In spite of dense fog which slowed down the early morning bite, 404 anglers boated 417 yellowtails in the 17 to 22½ pound class Saturday. Best single boat take was 44 by the Polaris and best batting average 32 by 15 anglers aboard Lloyd Juselson's Fastest. Largest of 1419 yellowtails ranked up by derby fishermen during the week was a 23 pound 11 ounce caught by H. Y. Hibi, San Diego. The four other weekly prize winners included: 22-8, W. J. Barnhart, Los Angeles; 22-2, Albert 21-14, George Constantino, Banning, and 21-14, Bud Haley, San Diego. Prize for the largest yellow checked in by a woman went to Linda Sax, Los Angeles, with a 20-2.

H. D. Mills, San Diego, still is setting the derby qualifying pace with a 25-4 yellow, and minimum qualifying weight at present is 18 pounds.
